

KNOWING YOUR GOD

By Mrs. Pat Berg[†]

One of the most important studies you can ever do is a study on the character of God. This study, by Pat Berg, will get you started toward knowing some foundational truths about God. Memorize the statement about God and then choose two or three of the verses following the statement to memorize. Meditate on the verses. Write your thoughts down in a notebook.

God is good.

- 1) God is limitless in His love; He is too loving to ever reject me.
Jeremiah 31:3; Romans 5:8; Romans 8:35-40
- 2) God is limitless in His compassion; He is too compassionate to ever be uncaring.
Psalms 86:15; Lamentations 3:32-33; Psalm 103:11-14
- 3) God is limitless in His faithfulness; He is too faithful to ever leave me.
Isaiah 41:10; I Thessalonians 5:24; Deuteronomy 31:8
- 4) God is limitless in His provision; He is too generous to ever withhold anything that I need.
Philippians 4:19; Psalm 84:11; Psalm 34:9

God is great.

- 5) God is limitless in His power; He is too powerful to ever fail.
Ephesians 3:20; Luke 1:37; Jeremiah 32:17
- 6) God is limitless in His knowledge; He is too knowledgeable to ever be caught by surprise.
Psalms 139:1-4; Romans 11:33-36; Proverbs 15:3
- 7) God is limitless in His presence; He is too near to ever be late in coming to my rescue.
Psalms 46:1; Psalm 139:7-10; Jeremiah 23:24
- 8) God is limitless in His wisdom; He is too wise to ever make a mistake.

Psalms 18:30; Romans 11:33-34; I Corinthians 1:25

[†] Used with permission.